

Places
Of Interest
Wisbech Society

Wisbech Society

Wisbech Society and Preservation Trust was founded in 1939

You don't have to live in Wisbech to become a member – just have an interest in celebrating history and heritage, and learning about Wisbech and the Fens. Trustees come from the membership. Most of us have a special interest, and help with the activities and the review. Do you have an idea for promoting the history of the town and the Fens? Would you like to help the Society promote its work and share our story? Become a member to support and join in the programme of events and trips - become a Trustee to help shape them!

Please email membership@wisbech-society.co.uk

This map is copyright Stephanie De Gaston, Amy Norton and the Wisbech Society.
You may download a copy from www.wisbechinformationcentre.org.uk for your personal use only
Paper copies will be available from multiple venues and posted on information boards.

Wisbech Society and Preservation Trust
Printed by Poyser Print & Design Ltd
☎ 01945 584861

Supported by:
ACME CABS: (01945) 58 58 58

- 1 Elgood's Brewery & Garden
- 2 Friends Meeting House
- 3 Wisbech Gallery
- 4 Peckover House
- 5 Octavia Hill Birthplace House
- 6 The Corn Exchange/Town Hall
- 7 Wisbech General Cemetery
- 8 Clarkson Memorial
- 9 Angles Theatre
- 10 The Castle
- 11 The Institute
- 12 Wisbech & Fenland Museum
- 13 St. Peter & St. Paul Church
- 14 Thomas Clarkson Birthplace
- 15 Empire Theatre

Wisbech info centre website: Wisbechinformationcentre.org.uk
Please get in touch if you would like to be added to the map.

Please bear in mind this map is not to scale.
Please check opening details on individual websites or by phone ahead of time, especially if travelling a long way.
Many, but not all, places are open to the public, please check their own websites for details.

Heritage Open Days is a national event every September.
See heritageopendays.org.uk for details. Often places will open only for these days, some will have extra exhibitions or tours put on, all will be free for the event.

Wisbech Society